It's hard to believe two years have come and gone
But my love for you is still just as strong

It's taken me this long to finally say goodbye
Because even now I'm starting to cry

You were an angel sent from heaven above
Your heart was so full of unconditional love

You didn't want anything except to be by my side
Didn't matter if we were on a walk, in bed or going for a ride

You would smile so big when I walked through the door
I don't think I could be loved more

Your beautiful eyes they pierced through my soul
The day we met I finally became whole

Such love you gave me like I had never felt
Just one look from you and my heart would melt

Life was good it could not have been better
You were a trooper letting me dress you in rabbit ears and a sweater

I still can't believe the day we went to the vet
Bone cancer they said, I just wept and wept

That was the worst day filled with such pain and gloom
I couldn't understand why God would take my Angel so soon
But now I know it was a blessing to be given the time that we had
And for every moment I am so very glad

Seven years was all you were given from the date of your birth
And only three of them together we had on this earth

Not a day goes by that you are not in my thoughts and heart
I get through knowing someday we will no longer be a part

Although your wings now flutter in heaven above
We are still together through undying love

I will always love you
My princess, my angel, my beautiful
